sentual to public health and that in order to encourage its greater use all milk offered for sale by milk peddlers should either be pasteurized or be produced from tuberculin tested herds.

"Whereas, co-operation in general tends to lower the cost of production and distribution benefiting both producer and consumer, therefore

"Resolved, that we urge the farmers of Delaware county to patronize their local creameries, shipping associations and the county mutual insurance company and other local co-operative enterprise.

Resolved, that we thank the people of Manchester, the Manchester Commercial Club and the County Farm Bureau and those making exhibits for their hearty co-operation in making this institute a success.

"E. B. PORTER.

"HENRY C. NIEMAN."

The nominating committee reported the following names for directors of the institute for the coming year: E. W. Williams, J. C. Nieman, C. K. Greer, E. B. Porter, J. S. Jones, Mrs. George Banta and Mrs. Ada Lawrence and they were unanimously elected. Senator George S. Banta gave a brief sketch of his legislative experiences and asked the home folks for their advice and co-operation.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend thanks to the kind neighbors and friends for the beautiful floral offerings, and for the sympathy shown us during the time of our greatest sorrow. MR. CHARLES REISNER and family. MR. and MRS. ROBT. FISHEL.

MRS. MARY VAN KUREN

Mrs. Mary Henrietta Van Kuren was born in Venango county, Pa., May 19th, 1838, and passed away at the home of her niece, Mrs. Jacob Schwager,

In this city on January 22nd, 1921. She was the daughter of John and Catherine Walters, and spent the greater part of her early life in the state of Ohio. In 1856 she came with her parents to Iowa, and located at Delhi. In 1860 she was united in marriage with Mr. John Van Kuren. Their family consisted of one son, who died at the age of eight years. The husband died in 1863, from wounds received in an engagement during the Civil war, his body being buried in a southern grave. For a time Mrs. Van Kuren lived at Forestville, and while there she held the position of postmistress. In 1876 she came to Manchester and has made her home here since. During the latter years of her life she has made her home with her niece, who gave her the best of care.

Mrs. Van Kuren is survived by one sister, Mrs. Marion DuBois, of Edgewood, and by the following nieces and nephews: Mrs. Jacob Schwager of this city, Miss Alice Walters of Waterloo; Mrs. Grace Millard, of Montour, Iowa; Charles Walters of Kansas City, Mo.; and Mrs. B. J. Davis, of Edgewood.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schwager on North Franklin street Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30. Rev. S. R. Beatty had charge of the services. Interment was made in Oakland cemetery.

CLARENCE A. BEAL

Clarence Allyn Beal, the son of Frank H. and Julia Beal, was born in Manchester, Iowa, July 13, 1902, and passed away in his home January 23rd, 1921, after a long lingering affliction. Clarence had been an invalid all his life, needing the constant care of his parents, and yet withal, was cheerful and patient, ever endeavoring himself to those whose gracious ministry provided for all his needs. The funeral services were held in the home on Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and were in charge of Rev. S. R. Beatty, the interment being made in Oakland cemetery.
